From The Helm

From The Helm

I first want to wish everyone a happy and healthy Holiday.

Don't forget that at the January General Meeting we will be electing the 2002 Officers and three Board of Governors. Make sure you make the right choices for the clubs benefit.

This could be my last article for the Foghorn, but I hope not!

I hope that everyone that attended the New Year's Bash enjoyed themselves for a good night.

Bill Lynk, Commodore

From The Ward Room

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all of the Flag Officers, Board members, both the bar and kitchen staff, Bar Committee along with many club members for their co-operation and tireless efforts to enable us to achieve our status as a great yacht club.

This could be my last article for the Foghorn. It has been a pleasure to serve all of you over the past two years and I look forward to continue to do the same. So thanks again, come on down to vote on Jan. 11th and have a Happy, Prosperous and Healthy New Year.

Walt Dobosz, Vice Commodore

WOMEN'S AUXILIARY

Our Christmas Dinner was well prepared and the service by the Staff Officers and their crew was fantastic. Many thanks to Larry Ursitti who picked up the tab. We all appreciate your thoughtfulness. Also, thanks to Walter for entertaining us with his ballroom dancing, the line dancers and the auxiliary rockettes for the show. It all led to a fun evening.

Our Wassail Bowl raffle was very successful with all the winners from the club. thanks to all of you who bought and helped sell tickets.

Our next meeting will be in March followed by our installation of Officers and Board members for the new year. There is still time between now and then to come forward if you would like to be the Recording Secretary. (Call me at 333-5388 or 783-6469).

Don't forget to pay your dues for 2002 to the attention of Genevieve Lucas. They are due Jan. 1, 2002.

That's all until March.

As ever, Ginny Lussier-Pres.
