From The Helm

Well, it seems we're at the Final month of summer and we should be thinking of winterizing and boat storage, but that's only for the Lion Hared.

There's still plenty of time on the water and the deck and facilities will be up and running until at least mid October so don't rush.

On another not, the Bishop Cup was run again by P.Y.C but F.Y.C had an excellent showing with the second place status, thanks to Bob Wardman. Also, September is the month for the Nominating Committee to be assembled. Anyone interested in participating should be at the September general meeting. The membership will nominate three member's to be part of the Committee, second and voted on. The B.O.G has already appointed their B.O.G members and I will appoint three other's to be there. With the end of the summer coming that only means one thing, our Annual Clambake, September 25th, don't miss it!

Finally, I would like to extend our best wished to Walt Jchick P.C. for a speedy recovery and to the family of Past Dock Master, Ron Simms.

See you on deck,
Jim Hasak

FLEET CAPTAIN'S CORNER

The Shelter Island Cruise turned out to be a weather problem and we were not able to leave the Club until three days after it had been originally scheduled. Even so, we were able to go only as far as two miles East of Charles Island and were forced to turn back. After one more day in port, four boats were able to make it to Northport: Eric Ferrigno and family in Ecstasy; Paul Bogacki and John Krotzer in Mirage IV; Lars Christensen continued to Shelter Island; Ken Miklus and BK made the run to Northport as well.

Some weeks ago I found in our locker room some rigging for what I would say is a twenty-five footer. I have this in my locker and would be pleased to return it. Please call me if this stuff is yours...looks to be in good condition and it's certain that leaving it there was an oversight.

You will read elsewhere in this periodical of the Cabaret Night which is scheduled for eight to eleven on September 11, at the Club. A new endeavor, we will be playing tunes from that era prior to the fifties, when the Big Bands reigned supreme. In addition to the danceable numbers played by Glenn Miller, Tommy Dorsey, Mitch Miller, Harry James, Artie Shaw, Benny Goodman and others, we will do show tunes. Some of these are: West Side Story, The King and I, Gypsy, Oklahoma, a Tribute to Lloyd Weber, Guys And Dolls, Sound of Music, and maybe Rhapsody In Blue.

Any question on these items, please call me....
